June 13, 14, 15, 16: Cape Town

After a leisurely breakfast you will be transferred for your flight to Cape Town.

The next four days are at leisure to explore the Cape via the wide range of Experiences we offer.

Cape Town is always the highlight of a trip to Southern Africa. With its breathtaking scenery, its fascinating multi-cultural persona, its superb restaurants, winelands, forest, ocean and mountain experiences and its friendly hospitable residents, it is one of the great travel delights of the modern world. It is also a wonderful place to become enthralled with the vibrant history of Southern Africa, a narrative that has more twists and turns and larger than life protagonists than a Tom Clancy novel. And the narrative is still being threaded today - this World Cup event is an unfolding part of this story. Our varied Experiences in the Cape will make sure you get the most out of what Sir Francis Drake described as "the fairest Cape in the whole circumference of the earth". Check out the Experiences tab at the top of this page to get a sense of all the incredible activities that await.

Radisson Blu (B)

Spectacularly situated on the edge of the Atlantic Ocean, the Radisson Blu Hotel Waterfront has sweeping views overlooking the famous Victoria & Alfred Waterfront, Robben Island and Table Mountain. All 177 rooms and suites are designed in a contemporary nautical style. Whether you are on business or pleasure Radisson Blu Hotel Waterfront, Cape Town offers you a unique opportunity to enjoy beautiful Cape Town.

June 17: Johannesburg – Group A Match (Mexico vs France)

After a leisurely breakfast depart for your flight to Johannesburg. The morning is at leisure for relaxation at your lovely hotel or choose from a host of Experiences we offer. Later this afternoon, transfer to Polokwane to attend the Mexico/ France game at Peter Mokaba Stadium. Match time today is 8:30 PM. As a guest of LAFC you will enjoy VIP Seating in the special FIFA Business Seat and a two hour Hospitality event before and after the game. Westcliff Hotel (B)

Situated in Johannesburg's most exclusive residential suburb, The Westcliff's hillside setting with cascading, sculpted gardens and elegantly opulent accommodation evoke a bygone era of leisure and refinement in one of the world's most vibrant and cosmopolitan cities. The tranquil surrounds of historic Westcliff makes for a unique resort-style layout with spectacular views over Johannesburg's leafy northern suburbs. The Westcliff is a charming and romantic retreat - and its accommodations are both ergonomic and unashamedly indulgent. The extravagantly sized rooms and suites all feature gorgeous over-sized marble bathrooms and most have a private balcony overlooking the zoological gardens or one of the estate's charming cobbled courtyards. Others feature sunny patios and the majority have glorious views of the estate's tumbling gardens or the leafy northern suburbs, complete with lush greenery and soothing water features.

June 19 through 21: Tintswalo Wildlife Safari

Transfer early this morning to Johannesburg Airport and then a short hop into Tintswalo. The Lodge is located in the private Manyeleti Reserve concession, a pristine wilderness area abounding in big game and spectacular bird life, nestled between the Timbavati Private Reserve to the north, Sabi Sand Reserve to the south, and open to the Greater Kruger National Park on its fenceless eastern boundary. The exquisitely appointed main lodge overlooks a waterhole frequented by a large herd of elephant and other big game.

The reserve is unique for its very low vehicle density, and as a result offers the true exclusive safari experience. The Explorer suites are all linked to the main lodge by raised wooden walkways. With an exclusive collection of six, lavish suites plus a regal presidential suite, Tintswalo Safari Lodge offers the discerning traveler an opportunity to let go of the hustle and bustle of busy business life and take time out to relax and become one with nature.

Consistently regarded as one of the finest wildlife lodges in Southern Africa, Tintswalo offers the visitor that special ambience and familiarity of place that transcends where you are from and makes you a part of something quite magical.
